Gifts for Your Eco-Celebration

CLOS DU BOIS - For years, Clos du Bois has adopted a philosophy of caring for the land which provides for us. The "us," as you might expect, is the greater us; the very people that grow the grapes, harvest the fruit, receive it at the winery, turn it into wine and drink it at home. It also includes those that don't enjoy wine, because, ultimately, the greater ownership of "the land" is theirs as much as it is wine drinkers.

Clos du Bois 2008 Rosé - Inspired by the dry Rosés of Southern France, a region famous for fine wine and romance, the Clos du Bois 2008 Rosé wine ($12) will make it hers and Cupid's cuvée of choice! Seductively PINK and perfect with food, the fresh fruit flavors and lively acidity will complement any dish on the night's menu of fare. www.closdubois.com
